Norwood Secondary College

How to connect to WiFi on your BYOD device

Windows 10

Step 1.

Click on the networking icon in the bottom right tray. From the list of WiFi networks, select eduSTAR. Tick "Connect Automatically" and click "Connect" eduSTAR Secured Network & Internet settings Change settings, such as making a connection metered.

(i.	£	((j))
Wi-Fi	Airplane mode
~ •	€ ⊲∞ с	🕼 ENG	8:47 AM 12/01/2021	$\Box$
eduSTAR Secured

Step 2.

Enter your eduPass username and password. (this is different to your Compass username) Click OK.

Step 3.

Select "Connect" to continue connecting.

(c.	eduSTAR Connecting
	Continue connecting? If you expect to find edu go ahead and connect of different network with th Show certificate details	ISTAR in this location, Otherwise, it may be a he same name.

Step 3.

Then you should be connected!

Step 1.

MacOS

Click on the WiFi icon in your top right menu bar. From the list of WiFi networks, select eduSTAR.

$(\widehat{\overline{a}})$	100% 🔲	Tue 12 Jan	9:34 am	Q
V T	Vi-Fi: On Turn Wi-Fi Of	f
eduSTAR				(((+
Join Other Network Create Network Open Network Preferences

Step 2.

Enter your eduPass username and password. (this is different to your Compass username) Click OK.

The Wi-Fi network "eduSTAR" requires WPA2 enterprise credentials.
	Username:	eduPass
	Password:	••••••
		Show password Remember this network
?		Cancel Join

Step 3. Now you're connected!

If you need any further assistance, please don't hesitate to contact the IT team.